Whistling Ridge Vineyard sits ridge-top in the western edge of the Ribbon Ridge AVA. The vines catch the daily winds that blow in, slowing ripening, evaporating moisture, and thickening skins. Soils are eroded from uplifted marine sedimentary rock, 40 to 50 million years old, and dry out quickly in the growing season, forcing non-irrigated vines to grow roots deep in search of water. Richard and Patricia Alvord planted and have farmed the 14 acre plot for the past two and a half decades. Patricia does all of her own grafting, and Pinot Noir plantings are a selection massale of over half a dozen clones. The wines are structured, elegant and complex.

The wines from 2018 are defined by a layered, complex nature, with ripe fruit flavors, great acidity, modest alcohols, fine tannins, and a precise expression of terroir.

“Dark, bright-rimmed scarlet. An expansive bouquet evokes fresh boysenberry, raspberry, licorice and potpourri, along with blood orange and exotic spice nuances. Conveys a suave blend of depth and energy on the palate, offering vibrant red and blue fruit, bitter cherry, floral pastille and star anise flavors braced by an undertow of juicy acidity. Shows outstanding clarity on the gently tannic finish, which hangs on with strong, floral-driven tenacity.” Josh Reynolds, Vinous, February 2022, 94 points.

Goodfellow Family Cellars is a winemaker owned and operated winery in Oregon's beautiful Willamette Valley. Founded in 2002, and producing approximately 4000 cases annually, we focus on old vines planted in unique and beautiful sites, conscientious farming, and techniques of tradition in the cellar. We are members of the Deep Roots Coalition, a group of craft oriented wineries committed to sustainable farming and sourcing grapes solely from non-irrigated vines. We do this because it is the responsible choice, and because it produces the highest quality wine with the truest expression of place.
